

Senate Rules

26. Conference Committees and Votes on Concurring

- (a) The vote on concurring in bills amended in the House shall not be taken until said bills have been placed in the files of Senators and particularly referred to in their calendars; but this rule shall be suspended during the last three days of the session.