

CHAPTER 144

INHERITANCE TAX

(H. B. No. 495, by Mr. Gordon, by request)

AN ACT

TO ESTABLISH AND IMPOSE A TAX ON TRANSFERS OF PROPERTY BY INHERITANCE AND INTESTATE LAWS OF THE STATE, BY WILL, OR GIFT OR INSTRUMENT MADE IN CONTEMPLATION OF DEATH OR INTENDED TO TAKE EFFECT IN POSSESSION OR ENJOYMENT AT OR AFTER THE DEATH OF THE MAKER THEREOF, PROVIDING FOR THE COLLECTION OF SUCH TAX, DEFINING AND PROVIDING FOR OFFENSES IN RELATION THERETO, MAKING AN APPROPRIATION TO CARRY OUT THE PROVISIONS THEREOF, AND REPEALING ALL ACTS OR PARTS OF ACTS IN CONFLICT THEREWITH.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

Title

Section 1. (1) This act shall be known as the "Inheritance Tax Act."

Estate, property defined

(2) The words "estate" and "property" as used in this act shall be taken to mean the real and personal property or interest therein or income therefrom of the testator, intestate, grantor, bargainor, vendor or donor passing or transferred to individual legatees, devisees, heir, next of kin, grantees, donee, vendees or successors, and shall include all personal property within or without the State.

Transfer—defined

(3) The word "transfer" as used in this act shall be taken to include the passing of property or any interest therein or income therefrom, in possession or enjoyment, present or future, by inheritance, descent, devise, succession, bequest, grant, deed, bargain, sale, gift, or appointment in the manner herein described.

(4) The word "decedent" as used in this act shall include the testator, intestate, grantor, bargainor, vendor or donor.

Decedent—defined

(5) For any and all purposes of this act and for the just imposition of the inheritance tax, every person shall be deemed to have died a resident and not a non-resident, of the State of Colorado if any (and) when such person shall have dwelt or shall have lodged in this State, during and for the greater part of any period of twelve consecutive months in the twenty-four months next preceding his or her death; and also if and when by formal written instrument executed within one year prior to his or her death or by last will he or she shall have declared himself or herself to be a resident or a citizen of this State, notwithstanding that from time to time during such twenty-four months such persons may have sojourned outside of this State and whether or not such person may or may not have voted or have been entitled to vote or have been assessed for taxes in this State; and also if and when such person shall have been a citizen of Colorado, sojourning outside of this State. The burden of proof in an inheritance tax proceeding shall be upon those claiming exemption by reason of the alleged non-residence of the deceased. The wife of any person who would be deemed a resident under this section shall also be deemed a resident and her estate subject to the payment of an inheritance tax as herein provided, un-

SECTION 2.

Property taxable

A tax shall be and is hereby imposed upon the transfer of any property, real, personal or mixed, or of any interest therein or income therefrom, in trust or otherwise, to any person or persons, institution or corporation, except as hereinafter exempted, in the following cases:

Transfer by a resident

A. When the transfer is by will or by intestate laws of this State, from any person dying seized or possessed of any such property while a resident of the State.

Transfer by non-resident

B. When the transfer is by will or intestate laws of property within the State and the decedent was a non-resident of the State at the time of his death.

Transfer of property in contemplation of death, taxable of

C. When the transfer is made by a resident, or by a non-resident when such non-resident's property is within this State, by deed, grant, bargain, sale, assignment, gift or contract, in contemplation of the death of the grantor, vendor, assignor or donor, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after such death; PROVIDED, that any such gift, or any such deed, grant, bargain, sale, assignment or contract without valuable and adequate consideration (i. e. a consideration equal in money or moneys' worth to the full value of the property transferred) made within one year prior to the death of the decedent shall be deemed and held to have been made in contemplation of the death of the decedent.

Contemplation of death, defined

The words "contemplation of death" as used in this act, shall be taken to include that expectancy of death which actuates the mind of a person on the execution of his will, and in no wise shall said words be limited and restricted to that expectancy of death which actuates the mind of a person making a gift causa mortis; and it is hereby declared to be the intent and purpose of this act to tax any and all transfers which are made in lieu of or to avoid the passing of property transferred by testate or intestate laws.

D. When any person, institution or corporation becomes beneficially entitled in possession or expectancy to any property or the income therefrom, by any such transfer, whether made before or after the passage of this Act.

Parties liable before or after passage of act

E. Whenever any person, institution or corporation shall exercise a power of appointment derived from any disposition of property made either before or after the passage of this Act, such appointment, when made, shall be deemed a taxable transfer under the provisions of this Act, in the same manner as though the property to which such appointment relates belonged absolutely to the donee of such power and had been bequeathed or devised by such donee by will; and whenever any person, institution, or corporation possessing such a power of appointment so derived shall omit or fail to exercise the same within the time provided therefor, in whole or in part, a transfer taxable under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to take place to the extent of such omission or failure, in the same manner as though the persons or corporations thereby becoming entitled to the possession or enjoyment of the property to which such power related, had succeeded thereto by a will of the donee of the power failing to exercise such power, taking effect at the Power of appointment

time of such omission or failure.

Property held in joint names

F. Whenever any property, real or personal, is held in the joint names of two or more persons, or as tenants by the entirety, or is deposited in banks or other institutions or depositories in the joint names of two or more persons, and payable to either or the survivor, upon the death of one of such persons the right of the surviving tenant by the entirety, joint tenant or tenants, person or persons to the immediate ownership or possession and enjoyment of such property shall be deemed a transfer taxable under the provisions of this Act in the same manner as though the whole property to which such transfer relates belonged absolutely to the deceased tenant by the entirety, joint tenant or joint depositor and had been devised or bequeathed to the surviving tenant by the entirety, joint tenant or joint depositor, person or persons, by will, excepting therefrom such part thereof as may be proved by the surviving tenant by the entirety, joint tenant or tenants to have originally belonged to him, her or them, and never to have belonged to the decedent.

Property transferred subject to any charge, estate
or interest

G. Where any property shall be transferred subject to any charge, estate or interest, determinable by the death of any person, or at any period ascertainable only by reference to death, the increase occurring to any person or corporation upon the extinction or determination of such charge, estate or interest, shall be deemed a transfer of property taxable under the provisions of this Act in the same manner as though the person or corporation beneficially entitled thereto had acquired such increase from the person from whom the title to their respective estates or interests is derived.

H. Wherever a decedent appoints one or more executors or trustees; and in lieu of their allowances or commissions, makes a bequest or devise of property to them which would otherwise be liable to said tax, or appoints them his residuary legatees, and said bequests, devises or residuary legacies exceed what would be a reasonable compensation for their services, such excess over and above the exemptions hereinafter provided for shall be liable to said tax, and the court having jurisdiction of their accounts, upon its own motion, or on the application of the Attorney General, shall fix such compensation.

Bequest to executor in lieu of commission

When the beneficial interest in any property or income therefrom shall pass to or for the use of any father, mother, husband, wife, child, or any child or children adopted as such in conformity with the laws of the State of Colorado, or to any lineal descendant of such decedent born in lawful wedlock, in every such case the rate of such tax shall be two dollars on every one hundred dollars of the clear market value of such property received by each person on all amounts not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; on all such transfers exceeding fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, the rate of tax shall be three dollars on every one hundred dollars of the clear market value of such property received by each person; on all such transfers exceeding one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred fifty thousand dollars, the rate of tax shall be four dollars on every one hundred dollars of the clear market value of such property received by each person; on all such transfers exceeding one hundred fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding two hundred fifty thousand dollars, the rate of tax shall be five dollars on every one hundred dollars of the clear market value of ance, shall be appraised at their full, undiminished value when the persons entitled thereto shall come into the beneficial enjoyment or possession thereof, without diminution for or on account of any valuation theretofore made of the particular estates for the purpose of taxation, upon which said estate or interests in expectancy may have been limited.

No divesting

Where an estate for life or for years can be divested by the act or omission of the legatee or devisee, it shall be taxed as if there was no possibility of such divesting.

SECTION 5.

Exemptions from tax

The following transfers of property shall be exempt from the inheritance tax, to-wit: All transfers of property to the State of Colorado, or to any County, City, Town or any other municipality, or for the use of public libraries, for religious or charitable purposes exclusively, or for schools and colleges not for profit; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the same be situated within this State, or the property be limited for use within this State.

SECTION 6.

Tax due at death

Discount within six months

Ten per cent. interest after one year

Executor, etc., give bond for payment

All taxes imposed by this Act shall be due and payable at the death of the decedent, except as hereinbefore provided. If such tax is paid within six months from the accruing thereof, a discount of five per cent. shall be allowed and deducted therefrom. If such tax is not paid within one year from the accruing thereof, interest shall be charged and collected thereon at the rate of ten per cent. per annum from the time the tax accrued. In all cases where the executors, administrators or trustees do not pay such tax within one year from the death of the decedent, they shall upon petition of the Attorney General to the County Court, be required to give a bond in the form and in (to) the effect prescribed in Section three of this Act, for the payment of said tax, together with interest.

SECTION 7.

Every tax imposed by this Act shall be and remain a lien upon the property passed and transferred until paid, except where the transfer is by deed or grant in the hands of a bona fide purchaser or incumbrancer without notice. In such case a certified copy of the application for probate of the will, or estate of the decedent or a copy of the order of the County Court assessing the inheritance tax may be recorded in the office of the County Clerk of the County where any real property described therein is situated, which record shall thereafter be deemed to be a notice of such taxes to a subsequent purchaser and incumbrancer of such real property, which record may be discharged by recording the receipt of the State Treasurer to that effect. The person to whom the property passes or is transferred and all executors, administrators and trustees shall be personally liable for the payment of all such taxes and interest and where proceedings for collection of taxes assessed shall be had, said executors, administrators and trustees shall be personally liable for the expenses, costs and fees of collection.

State is secured by bond or has been duly waived in the manner provided for in this Act. The receipt of the State Treasurer for the amount of the tax shall be conclusive as to the proof of the payment of such tax.

SECTION 10.

Tax collectible only on order
of county court

Fees of clerk
of county court

Objectors pay fees

Costs

No tax shall in any case be collected by or paid to the State Treasurer except upon and in accordance with an assessment order issued from the proper County Court. No fees shall be charged against the representatives of the State of Colorado, or against any person otherwise than as herein provided, but the Clerk of the County Court shall tax the sum of fifty cents for each entering of an assessment order and five cents for each notice of assessment order mailed, as costs in the estate in such case in which the estate in which a tax is due is undergoing administration in the County Court; and in addition thereto shall charge such fees for recording, when such is proper, as may be provided by law in other cases. If the estate is not undergoing administration, no fees shall be charged, unless objections are filed and further proceedings had upon them. In every case in which objections are filed, and further proceedings had, costs shall be taxed against the persons objecting, except the State as in ordinary civil actions. In special proceedings occurring under Section 18 of this Act, costs shall be assessed as in ordinary civil actions against the persons in default, excepting the State.

SECTION 11.

Every administrator, executor or trustee of the estate of a decedent who was at the time of his death a resident of this State, shall within three months after the date of his appointment, file with the Attorney General a sworn statement of all property, real, personal or mixed, and of any and all interests therein, owned by the said decedent at the time of his death, and of all such property and interest, if any, transferred by said decedent in his life time, by deed, grant, bargain, sale or gift, made in contemplation of death, of such decedent, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after such death, so far as the same shall have come to the knowledge of such administrator, executor or trustee. Any person swearing to such statement knowing the same to be false, shall be deemed guilty of perjury and upon conviction thereof shall be punished accordingly.

Administrator
file statement with attorney general

Penalty for false statement

Whenever, by reason of the complicated nature of an estate or by reason of the confused condition of the decedent's affairs, it is impracticable for the executor, administrator or trustee of said estate to file with the Attorney General a full, complete and itemized inventory of the property belonging to the estate within the time hereinbefore required, the Attorney General may, upon application of such representative or parties interested, extend the time for filing the statement for a period not to exceed six months, beyond the time fixed by law, or such further time as may be necessary upon good cause shown.

Extension of time

SECTION 12.

If an executor, administrator or trustee shall assign or transfer any stock or obligations of any domestic or foreign corporation doing business within this State, standing in the name of, or in trust

Transfer of corporate stock and securities by administrator, etc.

for a decedent, resident or non-resident, or belonging to or standing in the joint name of such a decedent and one or more persons, not exempt from taxation under section two hereof, the tax shall be paid to the State Treasurer on the transfer thereof. No corporation or other institution, person or persons, holding or controlling the transfer of securities or assets of a decedent, resident or non-resident, nor any corporation in which such decedent held stock at the time of his decease, shall deliver or transfer the same to the executors, administrators, trustees, heirs or legatees of said decedent or to the survivor or survivors when held in the joint names of a decedent and one or more persons, upon their order or request unless notice in writing of the time and place of such intended transfer or delivery be served upon the commissioner appointed under this Act at least ten days prior to such transfer or delivery; nor shall any corporation, institution, person or persons, transfer or deliver any securities or assets of the estate of a decedent without first obtaining the written consent thereto of the Attorney General, who shall as a condition of such consent, require that a sufficient amount or portion of such securities or assets be retained to pay any tax, and the interest thereon, which may thereafter be assessed upon the transfer of such property under the provisions of this Act or any amendment thereof. And it shall be lawful for the said commissioner or Attorney General to examine said securities or assets at the time of such delivery or transfer. Failure to serve such notice or to allow such examination or to retain a sufficient portion or amount to pay such tax and interest as herein provided, shall render such corporation or other institution, person or persons, liable to the payment of the tax and interest due upon the transfer of said securities or assets, in pursuance of the provisions of this Act and in addition thereto, or in the absence of any tax, to a penalty of one thousand dollars. The payment of such tax and interest and penalty, or either, may be enforced against the corporation, institution or person in the same way as the liability of legatees, or legal representatives, or may be collected by a civil action by the Attorney General brought in any court of competent jurisdiction. The terms "corporation" and "institution" are defined to include corporations generally, foreign or domestic, which are qualified to do business in this State, and also all banks, trust companies, safe-deposit companies, or other corporate or non-corporate institutions occupying fiduciary relations. The term "securities or assets" shall include stocks, bonds, notes, securities, choses in action, and other personal property, or the evidences thereof; and as applied to banks or similar organizations or persons, shall include deposits or other funds or papers held in storage, deposit or trust; and as to safe deposit companies, the contents or control of safe deposit boxes, and as to corporations or institutions generally, shall include shares in, or registered bonds of, or other interests, in the corporation or institution transferring. Assets or securities, including safe deposit boxes, shall be considered the property of the decedent if held by him jointly with one or more other persons, or in any other qualified or limited sense, so long as the ownership possesses a pecuniary or proprietary value.

tion

A fee of ten dollars shall be charged and collected for each such examination, whether such transfer be found to be taxable or not, PROVIDED, that only one such fee shall be charged against any estate. Said fee shall be paid into the Inheritance Tax Fund.

SECTION 13.

For the purpose of facilitating the collection of said inheritance tax and in order to fix the value of the property of persons whose estates shall be subject to the payment of said tax, there is hereby created the office of Inheritance Tax Commissioner, which shall be filled by appointment by the Attorney General, of an attorney at law licensed to practice in this State, and who shall have been actually engaged therein in the practice of law for not less than five years last preceding the date of his appointment. Said Inheritance Tax Commissioner shall be an assistant to the Attorney General, charged with the special duty of representing him in all matters connected with the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this Act, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Attorney General. Said Inheritance Tax Commissioner shall appoint two deputy inheritance tax commissioners, two inheritance tax appraisers, a clerk and two stenographers who shall devote their entire time to the performance of the duties of said office. Said Commissioner shall also have power and he may, with the consent of the Attorney General and the approval of the State Civil Service Commission, employ such other assistant or assistants as from time to time may become necessary to the proper conduct and administration of his office.

Witnesses subpoenaed under the provisions of this section shall have such fees as are now provided by law; PROVIDED, that on the petition of the Attorney General and with the consent of the County Court, expert witnesses may be called, the amount of whose fees shall be determined by the County Court.

Fees of expert witnesses

Appeal from county court

Any person or persons interested in the estate of a decedent, who may be dissatisfied with the assessment made or tax fixed by the County Court, may at any time within ten days after the entry of judgment upon such objections, appeal therefrom to the District Court of the proper County, upon giving bond to be approved by the County Court conditioned to prosecute said appeal and to pay all costs and whatever taxes shall be fixed by the District Court on appeal. Neither costs nor bonds shall in any case be required from the representatives of, or charged against the State of Colorado.

Actions to quiet title

Actions may be brought against the State by any interested person for the purpose of quieting the title to any property against the lien or claim of lien of any tax or taxes under this Act, or for the purpose of having it determined that any property is not subject to any lien for taxes, nor chargeable with any tax under this Act. No such action shall be maintained where any proceedings are pending in any court in this State wherein the taxability of such transfer and the liability therefor and the amount thereof may be determined. All parties interested in said transfer and in the taxability thereof shall be made parties thereto and any interested person who refuses to join as plaintiff therein may be made a defendant. Summons for the State in said action shall be served upon the Attorney General. Should the court determine that the property described in the complaint is subject to the lien of said tax and that said property has been transferred within the meaning of this Act, the court shall award affirmative relief to the State in said action, and judgment shall be rendered therein in favor of the State, ascertaining and determining the amount of said tax, the person or persons liable therefor, and the property chargeable therewith or subject to lien therefor.

Decree

It shall be the duty of said inheritance tax commissioner and each of his said deputies upon learning of the death of any person known or supposed to have died possessed of property in this State or subject to the tax imposed by this Act, to make an immediate investigation and to inform the Attorney General and the County Court of the County wherein said property is situated or wherein said decedent resided, of any facts learned by him respecting the estate of such decedent.

Investigation upon death of person having estate subject to tax

Whenever an executor, administrator, trustee or any other person who is liable to taxation under the provisions of this Act refuses or neglects to furnish the inheritance tax commissioner with any information which in the opinion of the inheritance tax commissioner is necessary to the proper computation of the taxes payable by such executor, administrator, trustee or person, after having been requested so to do, the inheritance tax commissioner shall certify such taxes at the highest rate at which they could in any event be computed.

Refusal to furnish information

In case letters testamentary or of administration shall not have been issued upon the estate of any deceased person and the tax provided for herein shall not have been paid to the satisfaction of the Attorney General within sixty days from the date

SECTION 14.

Whenever the inheritance tax commissioner shall, upon investigation, be satisfied that the transfer of any property of a deceased person is not liable to taxation under this Act, he shall, upon the request of the executor, administrator or trustee, make and sign a certificate to that effect which shall be countersigned by the Attorney General and filed with the Clerk of the Court having jurisdiction of the administration of such estate. Such certificate shall be conclusive upon the State as to the liability of said estate to taxation, except as to property subsequently found to belong to said estate, and the court, upon the filing of such certificate shall enter an order finding that said estate is not liable to taxation under this Act. A fee of one dollar shall be charged and collected for such certificate in all estates the gross value of which, as reported to said inheritance tax department, equals or is less than five thousand dollars; in all other estates a fee of five dollars shall be charged and collected for such certificate. Such fees shall be paid into the inheritance tax fund.

SECTION 17.

County court shall have jurisdiction over all questions relating to tax

Venue

Court first acquiring jurisdiction retain same

The County Court of any County which has assumed lawful jurisdiction over the property of the decedent for general probate or administration purposes under the laws of Colorado, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions in relation to the tax arising under the provisions of this Act. If no administration or probate proceedings have been taken out in the courts of this State, the County Court of the county in which the decedent was a resident, if the decedent was domiciled in this State, or if the decedent was not so domiciled, any Court which has or had sufficient jurisdiction over the property the transfer of which is taxable, to have issued probate or administration proceedings thereon had the same been justified by the legal status of such property, or the same been applied for, shall have jurisdiction. The County Court first acquiring jurisdiction hereunder shall retain the same to the exclusion of every other.

SECTION 18.

If it shall appear to the County Court either from its own knowledge, or upon petition of the Attorney General, that any tax accruing under this Act has not been paid according to law, whether such tax has been previously appraised or assessed or not, or whether or not the estate of the decedent concerned is already pending in such Court, it shall issue a summons summoning the person interested in the property liable to the tax to appear before the court on a day certain, not more than three months after the date of such summons, to show cause why said tax should not be paid. If appraisement and assessment, or assessment alone, be necessary, the court shall order the same or complete the same as in ordinary cases and the procedure thereon and appeal or writ of error therefrom, shall be the same as provided in all other cases of appraisement and assessment under this Act. If such be not necessary after the hearing upon return of the summons, either because previously completed and binding upon the parties, or because no tax is due, or for any other reason, then the process, practice and pleadings and the hearing and determination thereof, and the judgment in said Court in said cases and appeal or writ of error, shall be the same as those which follow after the hearing of objections and judgment thereon, as elsewhere provided in this Act, or as near as may be to the same. All summons and notices required in the proceeding under this Act may be served in every respect as now or hereafter provided for summons in civil actions in rem, unless otherwise provided.

6 it shall be his duty to file a petition under Section 18 of this Act, and press the same to a final conclusion. In addition to any other remedy for the collection of inheritance taxes, the State may enforce its claim therefor and the lien thereof by a civil action, in any court of competent jurisdiction, against any person liable to pay the same, and against any property subject to the lien thereof, and the Attorney General shall be authorized to appear in behalf of the State in any and all inheritance tax matters before any court of record. The Attorney General shall be authorized to compromise any tax matters with the consent of the Governor and the State Treasurer in writing, and to waive on his own responsibility any provisions of Section 12 hereof, in writing. No interest shall be waived except upon the Judge's certificate that the delay in payment has been due to proper and necessary litigation or other unavoidable cause.
